

Company Policy Handbook

1. Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain professionalism, respect colleagues, protect company assets, and comply with applicable laws and regulations.

2. Attendance and Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday. Employees should inform their manager in advance regarding absences or delays.

3. Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to the following annual leave benefits: 12 Casual Leave (CL) days, 12 Sick Leave (SL) days, and 15 Earned/Privilege Leave (EL/PL) days per year. Unused leave may be carried forward according to company rules.

4. Remote Work Policy

Remote work may be permitted based on business requirements and manager approval. Employees must remain available during working hours.

5. Information Security

Employees must keep company and customer information confidential. Sharing sensitive information without authorization is prohibited.

6. IT and Internet Usage

Company systems should be used primarily for business purposes. Unauthorized software installation and misuse of company resources are prohibited.

7. Anti-Harassment Policy

The company maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment, discrimination, bullying, or retaliation in the workplace.

8. Performance Evaluation

Employee performance will be reviewed periodically based on objectives, productivity, teamwork, and professional conduct.

9. Health and Safety

Employees must follow workplace safety procedures and immediately report any hazards, accidents, or unsafe conditions.

10. Disciplinary Actions

Violations of company policies may result in warnings, suspension, or termination depending on the severity of the violation.

11. Employee Benefits

Eligible employees may receive benefits such as health insurance, training opportunities, performance bonuses, and retirement plans.

12. Resignation and Termination

Employees are required to provide notice as specified in their employment contract. Company property must be returned upon separation.
